CUSTOMER IDEOLOGY

The relationship between Megs Zambia Limited and its customers is simple. We have employed a policy that allows us to go far beyond the role of a supplier to most of our customers. We stretch to become a true business partner by helping our customers manage their production operations. We provide specific expertise, technical assistance and insight into product application to allow our customers to stay on the cutting edge with their product knowledge. Our staff are well trained and qualified to meet customer queries, if need arises. Using the most up-to-date technology facilities, with the emphasis on effective communication, Megs Zambia Limited has a viable working environment which makes our staff always ready to work with our customers.

This has kept our staff always up-to-date on the latest development in products and services offered by us. Therefore, our customers have always appreciated our provision of the best in customer service and value everyday and all the time. Megs Zambia Limited has a simple but effective distribution network. We aim to do in a very effective cost serving way which reduces the expenditure on the part of our client following an order from the client, we, firstly verify product specifications from the client before placing an order with our suppliers. This then follows the Muso Tech Zambia Limited to supply order, which then our suppliers supply to us.

We then inspect the specified item if it fits the description specified on the order and also inspect if it meets the required quality standard. After this is done we then deliver to our client at no extra costs and we always try to do this in the most minimal time period. We later make follow-ups with the users to see if the product supplied is of the right specs and of the acceptable quality standards. This has also helped us develop a relationship with most of our clients that make us actually understand our client acceptable product quality standards.
